PROFILE

Andy Cordova is a new face at Huberty CPAs & Trusted Advisors. But he's not new to the Minocqua area. Aside from his schooling at UW-Oshkosh, Andy has lived his entire life in northern Wisconsin. He grew up in Tomahawk, now lives in Rhinelander, and joined Huberty's Minocqua office in January of 2015.

That life-long familiarity with the area he now serves gives Andy a running start as he looks forward to building strong, personalized relationships with Huberty's clients. He eagerly looks forward to assisting established customers with their financial goals. He's excited about reaching out to new customers, to grow Huberty's client base. He has worked with a wide spectrum of businesses including: manufacturing firms, financial institutions, service businesses, and individuals.
