PROFILE

As a Manager in the Fond du Lac location Jennifer provides tax, accounting, and consulting services. Jennifer specializes in business and individual tax planning and management. Her experience includes tax planning for special allocations, partners buying into and out of partnerships, property contributions and distributions, and both newly forming and dissolving partnerships.

Jennifer has worked extensively with partnership tax (a very complex area which she continues to further her education), companies in the real estate industry, cancellation of debt, and foreclosure or bankruptcy situations.

She grew up in Mequon, WI. Jennifer is passionately involved with her church, where she helps the nursery, and supports breast cancer awareness and research. Over the past several years, she raised funds for Breast Cancer by participating in the American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk. Jennifer now lives in the West Bend area with her husband and two children. Some of her hobbies include reading and cooking.
